STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

TOWN OF WOODVILLE

ORDINANCE

WHEREAS, the Town of Woodville has a large amount of unpaid utilities related to the transfer of meters due to renters vacating the premises and to the transfer of meters when a property is conveyed or otherwise changes hands; and,

WHEREAS, it is in the best interest of the Town of Woodville to protect the financial interest of the Town related to the collection of all utilities for which it has rendered services.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ORDAINED, on Motion of Alderman Carter, second by Alderman Fry and approved unanimously that the following shall apply to all utility accounts with the Town of Woodville:

Where renters contract with the Town for the provision of municipal services including the provision of water, gas, sewer and/or garbage services and a renter vacates the premises, leaving a balance for services rendered to the renter which is greater than the deposit on file with the Town of Woodville, the utility balance due must be paid prior to the provision of services to the next occupant of the residence.

When ownership of a property located in the Town of Woodville is transferred, the utility balance due, which is in excess of the deposit received, must be paid prior to rendering new services to the new owner.

The meter tampering fee is increased to $200.00.
